Talking about emotions

Many teenagers feel stressed or worried sometimes. It's normal! Psychologists say that it's important to talk about our feelings. When you feel sad or lonely, you can talk to a friend, a teacher or your family. Doing sport, listening to music or spending time in nature can help you feel calm. Sleeping well is very important too: when we are tired, we get angry more easily.

A. Write T (true) or F (false).

1. It's normal to feel worried sometimes. T
2. Psychologists say we shouldn't talk about feelings. F
3. Music can help you feel calm. T
4. When we are tired, we get angry more easily. T

B. Answer the questions in English.

1. Who can you talk to when you feel sad?
   → A friend, a teacher or your family.
2. Name two things that help you feel calm.
   → Doing sport, listening to music or spending time in nature.
