Catalina's week

Hi! I'm Catalina and I'm sixteen. I live in Quilpué with my parents and my little brother, Lucas. From Monday to Friday, I get up at 6:00 because I take the train to Valparaíso. The trip takes forty minutes, so I usually read or listen to music. My school is near the port. I study Tourism because I want to work on cruise ships one day. After school I have volleyball practice on Tuesdays and Thursdays. On Wednesdays I help my mother in her small bakery. At the weekend I sleep late, meet my friends and sometimes we go to the beach in Viña. I love my life, but I'm always tired on Fridays!

A day in the life of a port pilot

Rodrigo Vera is a port pilot in Valparaíso. His job is to guide big ships safely into the port. He doesn't have a normal timetable: sometimes he works at night, sometimes early in the morning. When a ship arrives, a small boat takes Rodrigo to it. Then he climbs a rope ladder to get on the ship — it can be dangerous when the sea is rough! On the ship, he talks to the captain and gives instructions to park the ship. Rodrigo studied for many years and he speaks English every day, because captains come from all over the world. 'I love my job because every day is different,' he says.
